

NASCLA Names 2005/2006 Officers, Board of Directors

[Scottsdale, AZ] – The National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) announces the installation of its 2005/2006 board of directors and executive officers.

NASCLA 20-member board members serve one-year terms from October to September, commencing at the association's annual conference each fall. This year's officers and board were appointed at NASCLA's annual conference in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Officers include Israel Torres, President; Greg Crow, 1st Vice President; Kathy LeCroix, 2nd Vice President; Carolyn Lazenby, Secretary and Treasurer; and, George Whalen, Immediate Past President.

Israel Torres, President, was appointed Director of the Registrar of Contractors by Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano in February 2003.

Greg Crow, 1st Vice President, is Chief Legal Counsel for the Arkansas Contractors Licensing Board and has been with the ACLB for 7 years.

Kathy LeCroix, 2nd Vice President, serves as the Executive Director of the Alabama Board of Heating and Air Conditioning Contractors.

Carolyn Lazenby, NASCLA Secretary/Treasurer, serves as the Executive Director of the Tennessee Board for Licensing General Contractors. Carolyn has been with the board for 16 years.

George Whalen, Immediate Past President, has served as the Executive Director of the Rhode Island Contractors' Registration Board for 14 years.

The NASCLA Board of Directors includes the association officers and 16 other contractor licensing agency executives from across the United States. A complete list of board members is available at www.nascla.org/officers.htm.
