GREGORY L. CROW ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STATE CONTRACTORS LICENSING AGENCIES

PHOENIX, AZ – SEPTEMBER 6, 2006. Gregory L. Crow, Chief Legal Counsel for the Arkansas Contractors Licensing Board, was elected President of the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) at its 44th Annual Conference held in Scottsdale, Arizona. Mr. Crow was elected President by NASCLA's Board of Directors on Friday, August 25, 2006.

Mr. Crow was born in 1963 to Dr. Asa and Wanda Crow of Paragould, Arkansas. He graduated from Paragould High School in 1981 and he graduated from Hendrix College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1986. In 1999 graduated from the University of Arkansas School of Law.

Mr. Crow is a former Assistant Attorney General for the Arkansas Attorney General's Office. He has been the Chief Legal Counsel for the Arkansas Contractors Licensing Board since 1999. He and his wife Kim have two children, Dustin and Kaleb and live in Conway, Arkansas.

NASCLA was formed in Utah in 1962 as a non profit corporation. NASCLA is dedicated to the mutual assistance of its members in striving for the better regulation of the construction industry in order to protect the health, welfare and safety of the general public. The association's membership is comprised of state and local contractor licensing agencies as well as construction firms, construction trade associations and others associated with the construction industry.

NASCLA's 2007 Annual Conference will be held in Gregory Crow's home state of Arkansas at The Peabody Hotel in Little Rock. NASCLA's 2007 Annual Conference will be a milestone for the association as it celebrates 45 years of bringing construction regulators and other construction professionals from across the nation together to discuss issues that are relevant to the better regulation of the construction industry.

We encourage all construction industry professionals that share similar values and goals to become involved with the association and participate in this historical event. For more information on the association, please visit our website at www.nascla.org.
